Dear Customers,

As you explore our 2026 Holiday Outdoor Decor Catalog, thank you for taking the time to plan the upcoming season with us. For more than a century, we've helped communities create welcoming places that bring people together, designing and manufacturing our traditional décor with American craftsmanship.

Since Holiday Outdoor Decor is a manufacturer, and not just a distributor, you're buying from the teams who build your products. This gives you consistent quality, responsive support, and fair, transparent pricing. If you ever find a comparable product at a better price, please reach out and we'll work with you to provide equal or better value. We also offer our biggest discounts on orders placed before the end of February, plus volume tiered pricing on bulk purchases, giving early buyers outstanding savings.

Inside this catalog, you'll find refreshed collections, new product families, and flexible solutions across our line. Our patent-pending ModFlex™ system lets you update face panels for different seasons while using the same durable frame. We're also proud to introduce our new America 250 designs, celebrating the upcoming 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence and reflecting our commitment to American design and community pride.

Thank you for choosing Holiday Outdoor Decor. We look forward to supporting your vision and helping you create memorable experiences for your community.

Sincerely,
Boris Bajlovic
Chief Executive Officer
